The background of the entire image is a light green, textured fabric. Overlaid on this are several large, expressive brushstrokes in a darker green color. These strokes are somewhat vertical and curved, creating an abstract, organic pattern that resembles a stylized plant or a calligraphic mark.

Going Strong	18	The Difference	56

We are . . .

I am.

I like being me.

I am at ease

with my friends

in my surroundings,

no pressure

to prove myself.

Every goal

is within my reach,

for all things

are within my distance.

My mind

knows no boundaries,

my heart

knows no limits.

I am unique

and my actions

reflect that fact.

We feel the dignity

of each other.

We don't feel superior to each other,

for we are not.

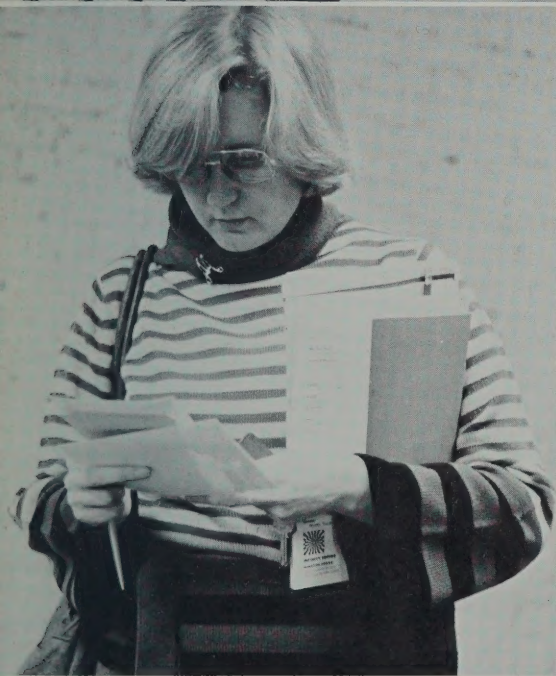

We don't lead,

we don't follow,

we walk together.

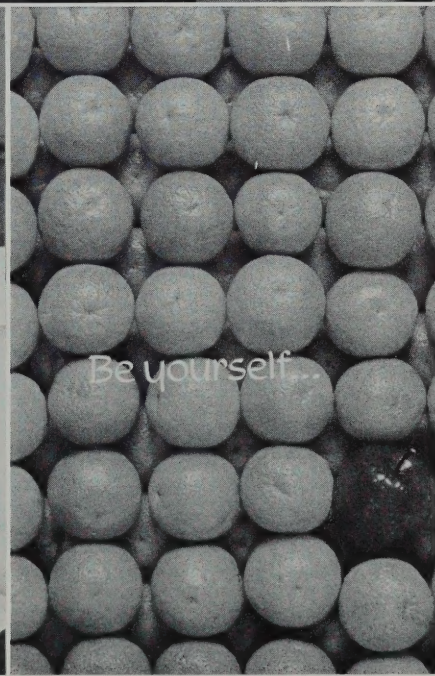

Unspoiled,
unhurried,
uncommon,
WE ARE NATURALLY US.
Perhaps our greatest quality
is quality,
striving to maintain
our competitive spirit,
WE ARE GOING STRONG.
Giving and receiving friendship,
is why
WE ARE ALWAYS THERE.
We are a beginning.
We make good things happen
in a style
of our own,
WE ARE FREE AND EASY.
We are progressive.
We reach for
the stars,
realizing everything is within our reach,
WE ARE THE DIFFERENCE.

Changing
 growing together
 yet always free
 to be ourselves;
 We have fun.
 Shedding
 masks of everyday faces
 to reveal
 our true
 inner selves;
 We are confident.
 Expressing feelings
 defending our opinions
 while respecting the views
 of others;
 We are aware.

NATURALLY US

Conscious of other's needs wanting to understand
willing to give,
We care.
Welcoming the challenge
of the future;
cherishing
the memories
of the past;
Enjoying the adventure
of the present;
We celebrate life.
Living
with spontaneity
and exuberance, Daring to reach out,
We are.

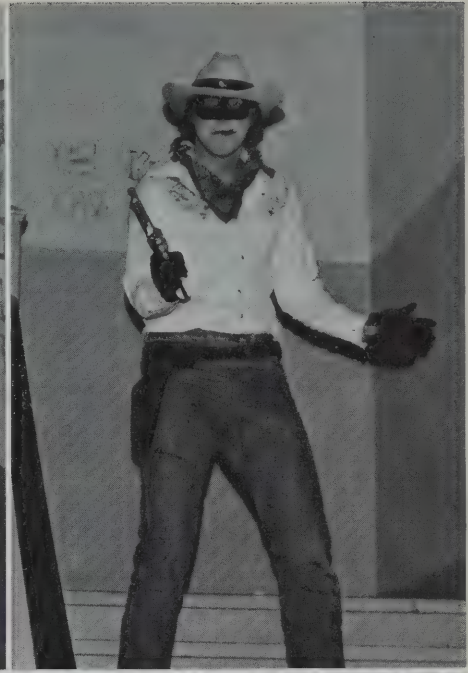

“ ‘What goes on,’ Judy? After learning the ropes from you, D.J. should see the team of Natalie and Nancy about his Young Life. Also, the Three Musketeers might teach him a trick or two about the business world. Be careful, because like any hungry bear, all he really wants is to bring his growling stomach to the cafe crew.”

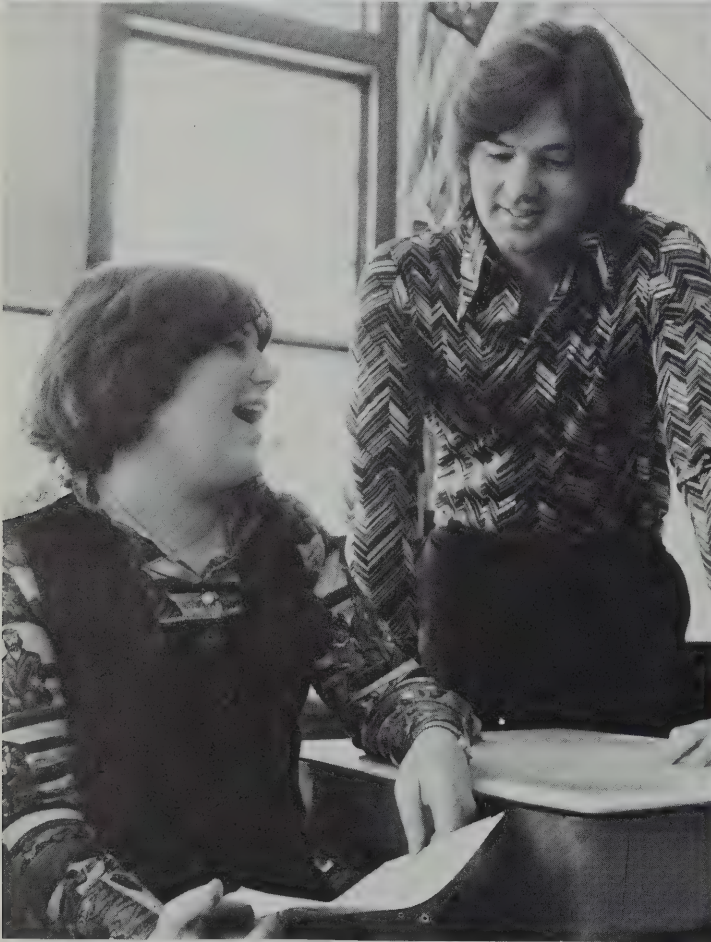

Among the guests at the Halloween Dance were the distinguished ‘senior’ citizens and the ‘feminine, but oh so masculine’ cheerleaders. The party was invaded by a masked man who had to be fended off by our Star Wars patrol. To revive our spirits, the French class prepared croissants and crepes.

Working, helping, caring, and serving together; this is N.C. The student government was our voice, and through the leadership of Sheila and Harry, we were well heard. Our source of information, the Free Lance, was staffed by many concerned students and aptly edited by Mary Donna Swan.

Through the National Honor Society, we reach out to serve others. Their major project of the year was the collection and distribution of food baskets at Thanksgiving.

You . . . you never looked so good! That unforgettable prom at Sidney Hill was a fantasy while your class rings brought the reality that high school is not forever. Oh, to be a Junior!

While the students celebrated Christmas as a Holy Feast, some of our faculty seemed to have found a spirit all their own! And for those of you who felt sad that it wasn't a white Christmas, were you in for a surprise in February and March!

Doubling as FTD florist, the National Honor Society sponsored a green-orange carnation contest for St. Pat's Day. Flowers were delivered to the guy or gal of your choice. Green won hands down!

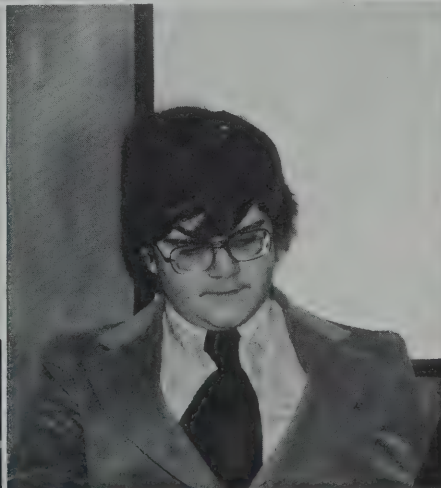

The Junior Senate, an innovative project created jointly by Nancy Oliver and Bob Bowers, gave each junior the opportunity to learn by participation how the United State Senate operates. Portraying the personalities of individual Senators the juniors researched, debated, and prepared formal papers. All in all, it was a fun experience.

Here we are in our home away from home, Room 6. Endless hours of cropping candids and composing copy along with sleeping and snacking brought you this book. What a year!

We are grateful to Purdy-Vantine Studios for thousands of pictures, Guy Garon, from Hunter Publishers, for his persistant attention and Bob Bowers for his careful copy editing. Foremost, we would like to extend personal appreciation to Lois Walsh, our moderator, who made everything possible.

From the very beginning, an air of victory, determination, and apprehension marked the squad's practice sessions. Head coach Tom Raeke and his assistants John Papalia, Steve Poore, Paul Doty, and Tom Sbordone piloted the Lancer team to an exciting 5-4-1 season. Co-Capt. Lou Abruzzi was defensively aggressive at middle guard while Co-Capt. Dan MacEwen was tough from his halfback position. Leading N.C. to a season of well played games, they proved their All-Catholic designation. Offensively, the Lancers boasted the team's leading scorer Dave Girouard, who tallied all 28 points against St. Mary's and Jeff Beatrice, who scored twice and gained more than 100 yards against Columbus. Leading the offensive attack with a comprehensive balance of passing and rushing, was junior quarterback Tim Hoban. Defensively, right-end Henry Marini and tackles Joe Biotti and Rich Murphy displayed great discipline in decisive situations. Vigorously holding down the left-end spot, was All-Catholic Jim Schmidlein. Evident on the field was Pat Caruso's brawn, Rich Bradley's doggedness, and Harry McShane's tenacity. The determination of Kevin Maslowski, the endurance of Rich Giovangelo, combined with the steadfast effort of Stephen Mastromattei, provided backbone.

Bump, set, spike! Volleyball is action, is unpredictable, and is a sport where teamwork determines winners. Boasting a 3rd place, 6-4 record, the second year team has established itself as a strong contender in its league.

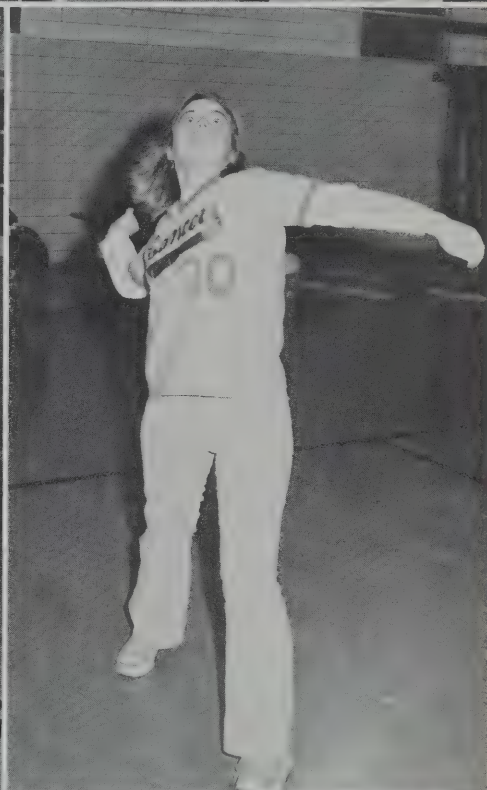

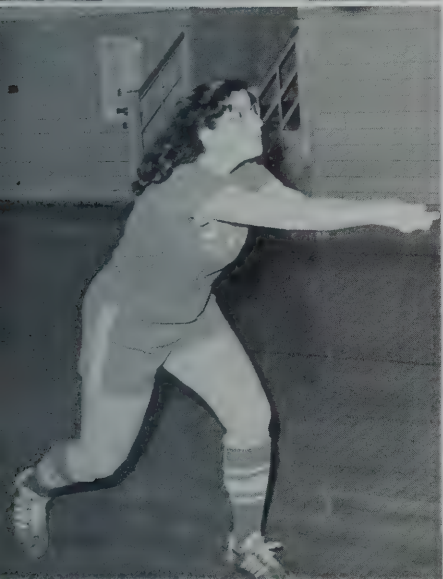

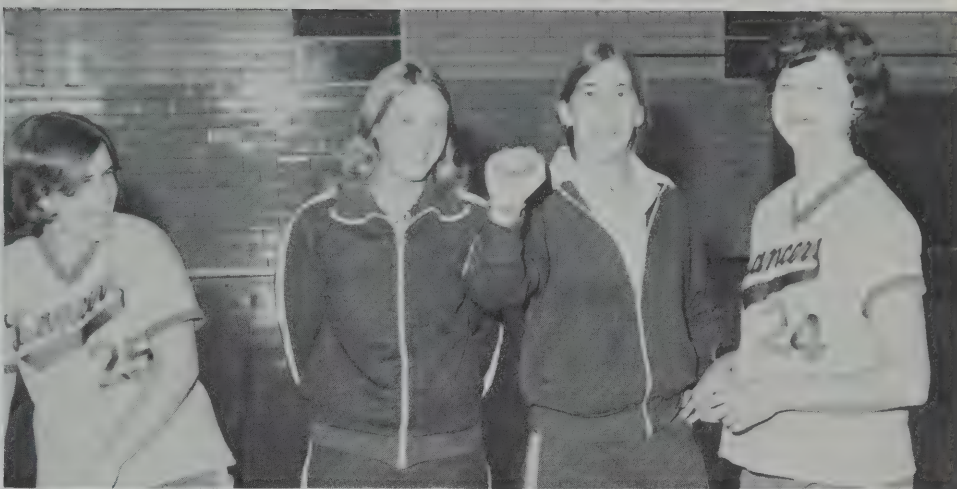

Games of endurance, pride, and competitiveness, highlighted the season. Led by the strong spiking and blocking of Kathy Foster and All-Catholic, Co-Capt. Sheila Daly, the girls maintained a tough offense. The scoring advantage stemmed from the serving abilities of Co-Capt. Ronnie Pepper and All-Catholic Jennifer Hays. Betsy Drane and Donna Murphy provided strong will, while Fabienne Anselme and Moe Conboy added stability to the Lancers. With much upcoming talent, the Lancers look forward to another profitable season.

VOLLEYBALL

Starts in May and ends in May. A whole year! This is a part of what it takes to be a Newton Catholic cheerleader. It also takes stamina, coordination, and courage. Cheerleading requires perfect and precise teamwork. From inception to performance, a thirty-second routine may demand fifteen hours to thoroughly master. Impressive mounds were made possible by the reliability of Doreen Paglia and Nancy Kiley, combined with the versatility of Maura Daly and Joanne Coletti. The agility of Nancy Giovangelo, Kathy Marchand, Arline McCormick, the resilience of Beth King and Patty Newman's electric crowd contact made the performance unsurpassable! Judy Tambascio instilled, in both the squad and players, a fierce competitive spirit. The J.V. squad under the direction of Linda Belli and Linda DiFonzo exhibited talent and the promise to continue in the same traditions. Overall, the squads showed witness to the selfless dedication of the coach, Nancy Oliver.

FRONT ROW: A. Nelligan, Co-Capt. L. DiFonzo, P. Varum, Co-Capt. L. Belli, M. Cocuzzo.

Under dynamic first year coach Frank Ferrer, the 1977-78 N.C. basketball team came out strong with a winning attitude. The potent scoring prowess of Senior Co-Capt's Jeff Beatrice and Paul Webber provided the '78 Lancers with the reputation of being tough to beat. Jeff with an outstanding 24.8 average earned the title of the Catholic Suburban League's leading scorer and the honor of First team All-Catholic. Paul distinguished himself as one of the top ten scorers of the league with a strong 16.4 average.

Triggering the fast break with hard nosed rebounding, Senior Harry McShane and Sophomore Mike DiDuca spurred the offensive pace.

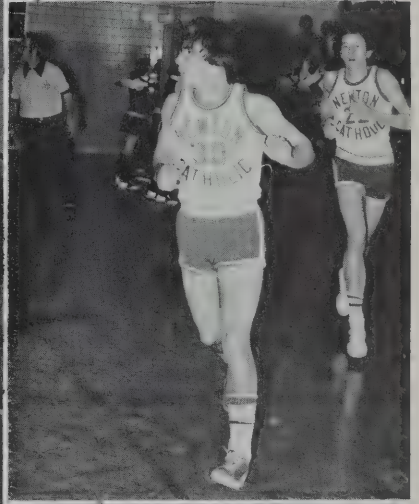

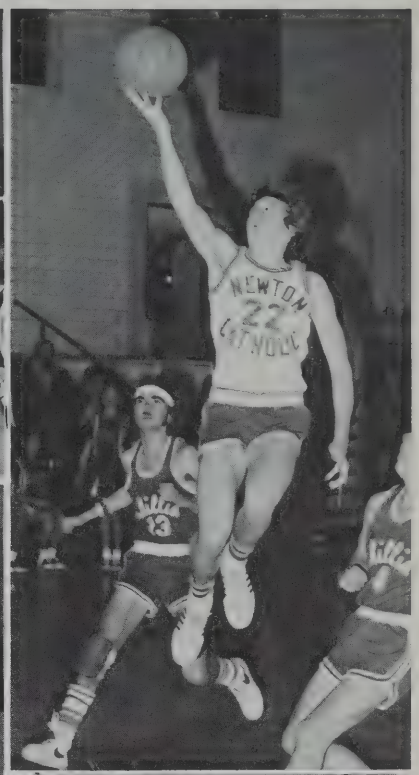

Junior Tim Hoban ignited the Lancer cause with his commendable outside shooting. When called upon, Juniors Mark Waters and Stephen Venditti, performed splendidly. Seniors Kevin Maslowski and Jack Foy, first year players, added enthusiastic spirit and determined effort. It was a season packed with last second decisions that kept dedicated N.C. fans on the edge of their seats. The tenacity and unsinkable attitude of the Lancers culminated in the upset victory over second place St. Clement's. Next year a promising assortment of Jayvee players will join the returning cagers. Among these players are Tony Webber, Gerald Harvey, and Martin Eldredge. For coach Ferrer, the future is now and his team is ready!

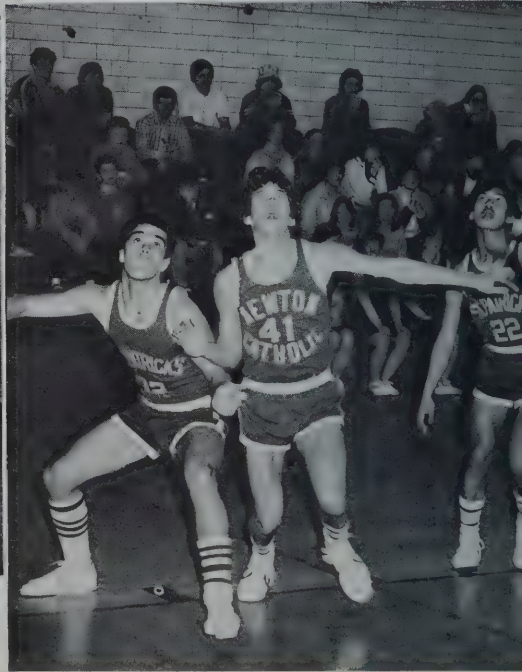

FRONT ROW: J. Foy, H. McShane, Co-Capt. P. Webber, Co-Capt. J. Beatrice. BACK ROW: Coach F. Ferrer, S. Venditti, M. DiDuca, T. Hoban, M. Waters. MISSING: K. Maslowski, B. Kearney.

BASKETBALL

FRONT ROW: J. DePasquale, G. Harvey, D. Conboy, J. Barry, D. Rossi. BACK ROW: Coach J. Tedesco, A. DePasquale, J. Venditti, M. Eldredge, T. Webber, M. Trudeau.

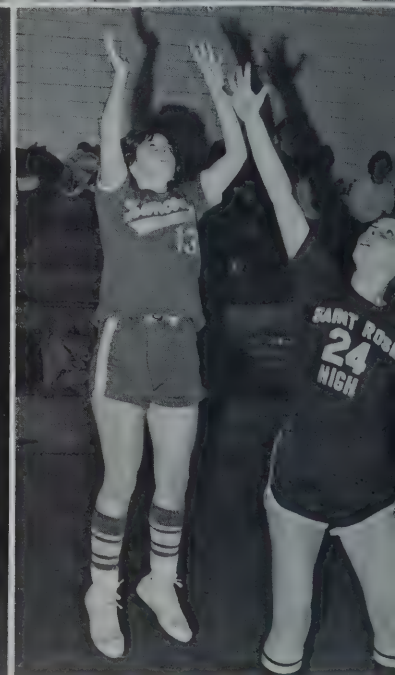

Enthusiasm, vitality, and outstanding talent are the hallmarks of our Junior Varsity teams. The experienced coaching of Cindy Timmons and the resolution of the girls, compelled the team to boast an impressive 11-1 season. The boys posted a 9-11 record with the valiant effort of a new and determined coach, John Tedesco. The accomplishments of our J.V. makes us proud.

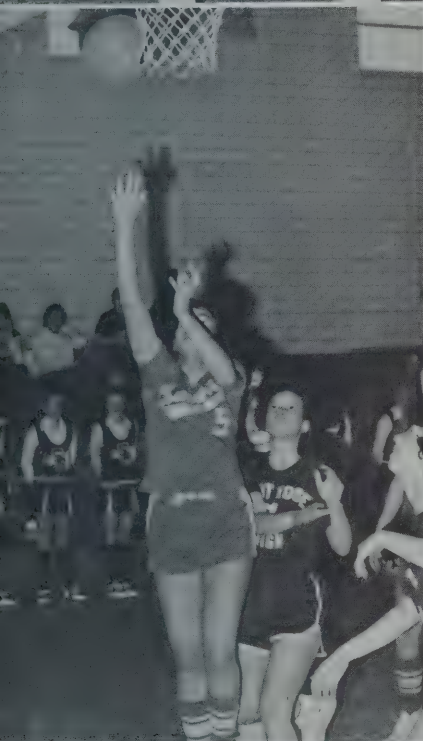

FRONT ROW: C. Conboy, P. LaPorta, Co-Capt. L. Abruzzi, Co-Capt. C. Connaughton, C. McNulty. BACK ROW: K. Rogers, N. Brennan, L. Daley, J. Lynch, M. Doherty, Coach C. Timmons.

'Hustle' basketball requires specific responsibilities which were fulfilled through the teamwork of the girls varsity. The attitude of the girls team demands alertness, competitiveness, and spirit. Coached by Robbin Ojala, the girls played with authority and concentration. They defended, rebounded, and passed the ball with an energetic spirit.

Controlling the offense, Co-Capt. Ronnie Pepper completed the essential position of a good ballhandling guard. Senior Pattie Sweeney, with her quick, percise passes and drives, insured backcourt involvement in the game. The most important aspect of basketball is the offensive and defensive rebounding. This was executed by seniors Mary De Filippo, the team's leading rebounder, and Kathy Foster, who provided team strength. The precision and agility of All-Catholic Co-Capt. Sheila Daly, proved that she was ready and available in key situations.

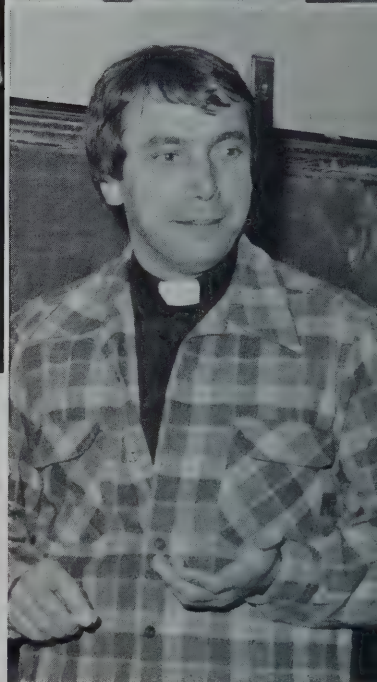

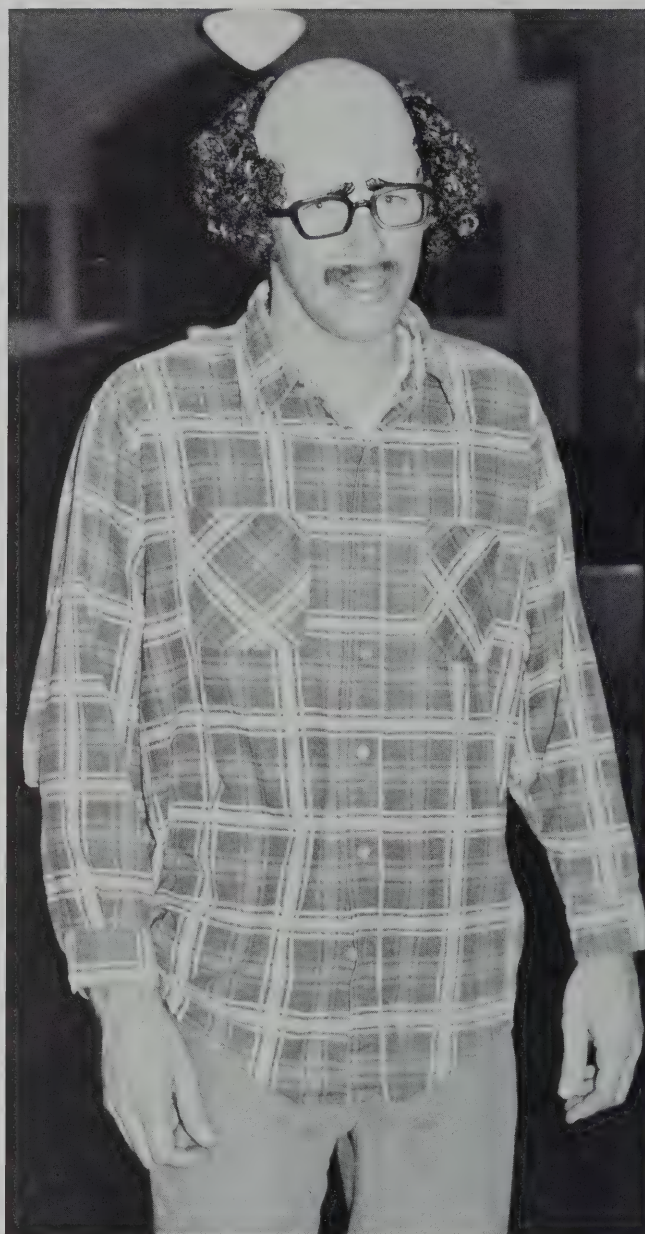

The persistence of Jen Hays, and the endurance of Donna Murphy instilled team consistency, while the vitality of Celeste Fandel sparked an inner strength. Combining the effort of Fabienne Anselme and Jeanne Lynch, proved to be a definite asset to the team. With their knowledge and experience, these accomplished athletes will be the basis for a productive season next year.

FRONT ROW: P. Sweeney, Co-Capt. R. Pepper, Co-Capt. S. Daly, J. Lynch. BACK ROW: F. Anselme, C. Fandel, M. DeFilippo, D. Murphy, K. Foster, J. Hays, Coach R. Ojala.

We dare
to confide in you,
knowing that you will still believe in us.
You are
students, too:
Open to ideas,
Asking questions
of life,
Valuing
our opinions,
Learning through common experiences, Discovering
that we share
hopes and dreams.
together,
we are growing.

Ardent supporters, the school board and the parents association, give of themselves to insure a strong foundation for Newton Catholic. They are interested in us and our total development.

The paternal concern of our administrator, Father Fichtner, stimulates the caring spirit inherent within the school. His enthusiasm and diligent work are part of what makes N.C. possible. Monsignors John J. McManmon, and William T. Granville, are integral parts of our school family. We are grateful for their unremitting support.

Sister Joan planted the seeds of love and concern in September and nourished them throughout the year with hard work and a friendly smile. The warmth of our new principal made it easy for us to welcome her. With a deep inner strength and a quiet approach to difficult situations, she commands our respect and admiration. Her understanding and encouragement reinforces our feeling that we stand for something good in the world. While receptive to new ideas, she has maintained the best of N.C. traditions. We would like to express our sincere appreciation to Sr. Joan for all that she is. During the short time we have known her, she has touched each one of us with her caring spirit.

PHONEY FACTS

Sometimes you would like to telephone a faculty member. Unfortunately, their numbers are unlisted. We have discovered THE WAY to contact them! Dial the word that best describes each person. For example, to order a sub, you would dial D-E-A-C-O-N-S. Can you translate these phoney phone numbers and match them to their owners?

We are
idealistic.
We want our lives
to be a source
of hope and peace.
Although promises
and commitments
are part of our lives,
they are not as fundamental a reality as a sense of wonder.
We wait for life
to reveal its meaning,
not knowing
when this meaning
shall become clear.
We wait in hope.
A hope built upon who we actually are,
on what we are able to become.

WE ARE NOT AN END
IN OURSELVES,
WE ARE A BEGINNING.

CHATEAU DE VILLE

Demonstrating their aggressiveness and perseverance the Lancers proudly reached the quarter-finals of the Catholic Tourney.

Capturing our attention were Juniors Steve Venditti slugging his way to a .440 average and John Bradley hurling a 9 and 5 season.

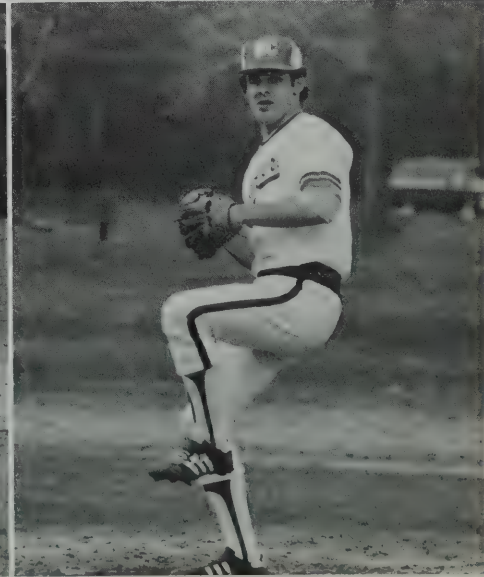

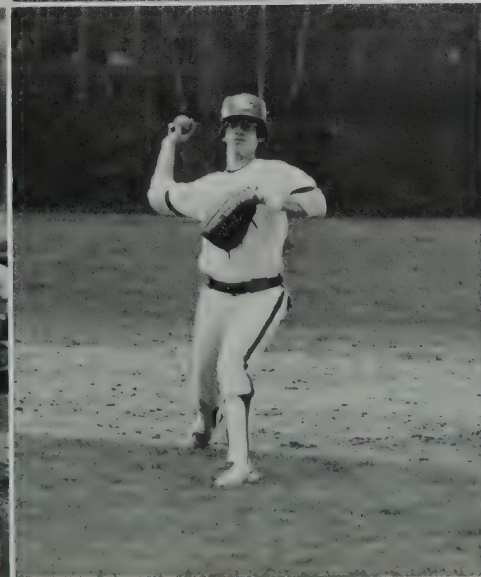

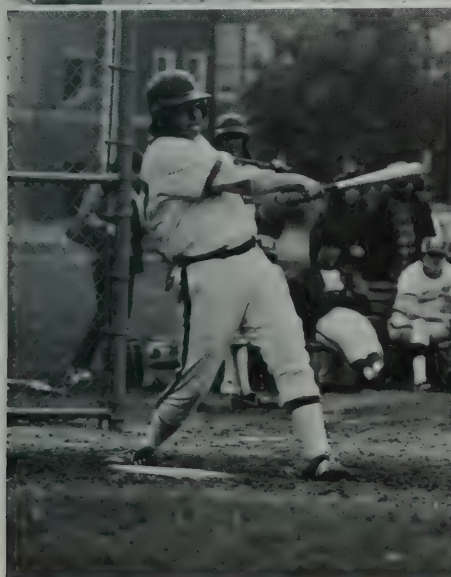

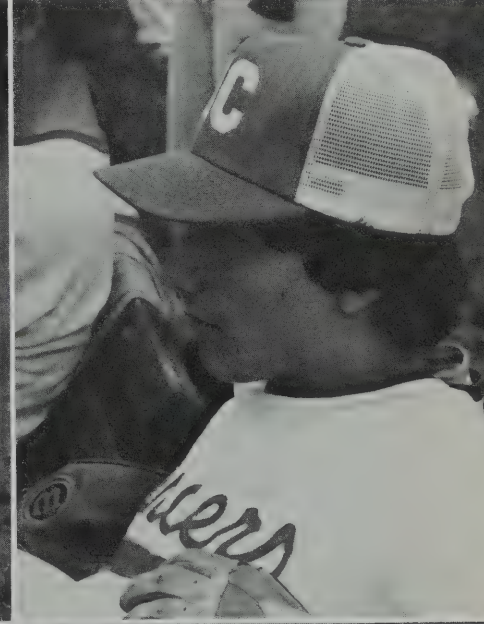

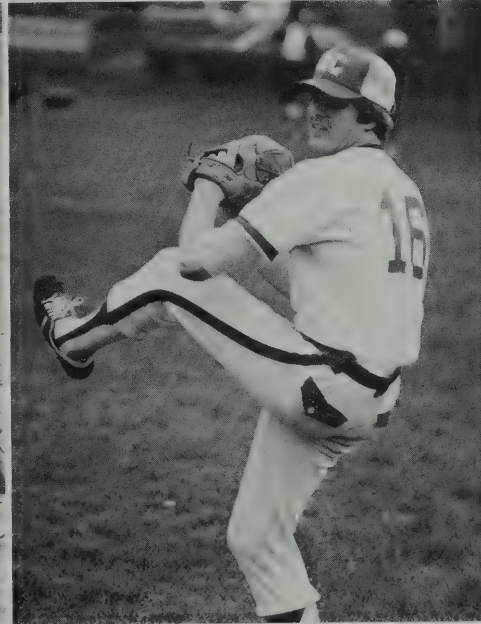

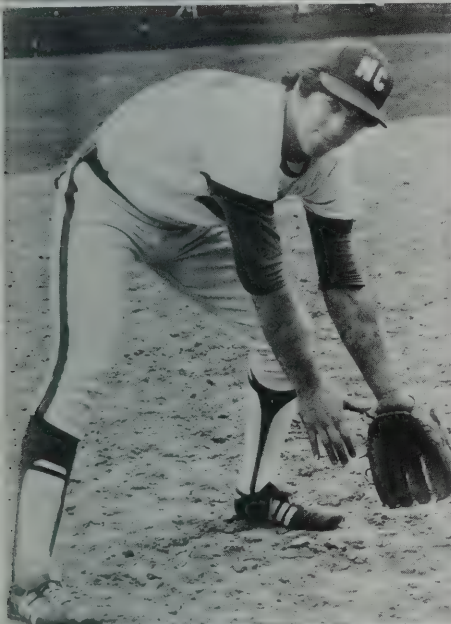

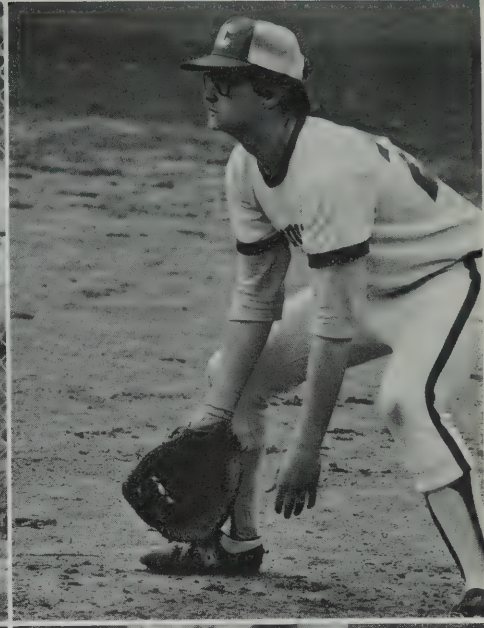

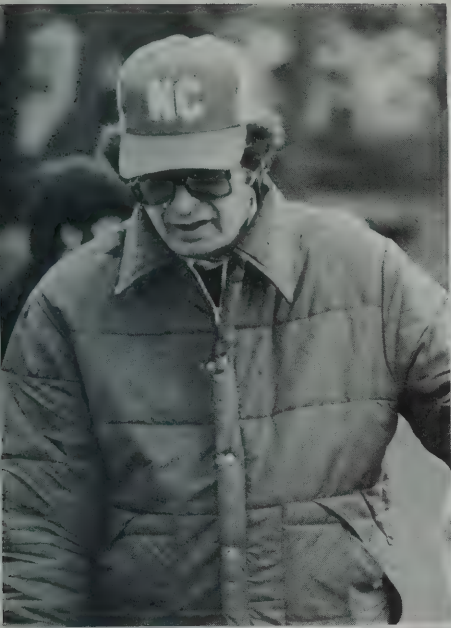

All Catholics Jeff Beatrice and Danny McEwen captained the team to a 13 and 6 season.

SOFTBALL

Posting one of its best seasons the softball team marched successfully through the quarter finals.

Captains Ronnie Pepper and Sheila Daly guided the team to a winning season.

Contributing to the overall brilliance of the team were Freshmen Laurie Abruzzi and Claire McNulty who exhibited a spectacular season in both fielding and batting.

" THE BLIZZARD OF '78 CANCELS REHEARSALS"

The crippling snow disabled all activities for many days. However, N.C. persevered through cancelled rehearsals and produced one of its most spectacular performances.

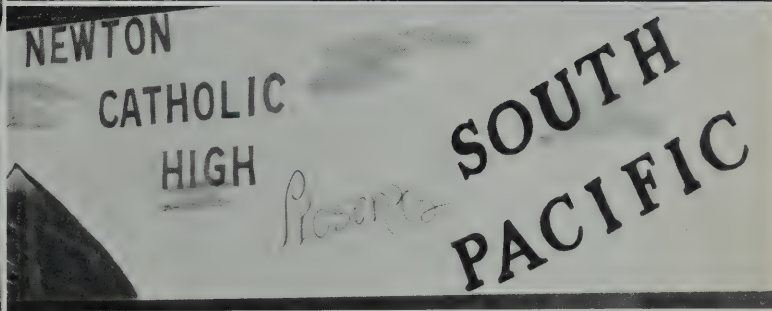

For the first time in our recent history, a Freshman, Eileen Wallace earned the lead role cast as Nellie Forbush, she co-starred with Tony Parente portraying Emile DeBeque. Together they brought sensitivity and warmth to the performance.

Anne Dougherty's interpretation of the conniving Bloody Mary and Dave Girouard's daring dance ignited show stopping hysteria. The mixture of hard work and fun will never be forgotten.
